JANUARY MEETING PINHOLE PHOTOGRAPHY

The Frederick Camera Clique welcomes guest speaker Scott Spect!

Scott will be sharing a presentation on pinhole photography and pinhole cameras with large prints.

About

A pinhole camera is a very simple camera with no lens and a single very small aperture.

Simply explained, it is a light-proof box with a single hole in one side. Light from a scene passes through this single point and projects an inverted image on the opposite side of the box.

Cameras using small apertures, and the human eye in bright light both act like a pinhole camera.

3RD ANNUAL WASHINGTON GARDENER PHOTO CONTEST

While reflecting on all that happened in 2008, be sure to look at all the photos you took this year for eligible entries into the 3rd Annual Washington Gardener photo contest.

The three main entry rules for photographs are:

- Taken in the 2008 calendar year
- Shot within 150-mile radius of the U.S. Capitol building
- Garden-related (i.e. plants, plant parts, garden fauna, garden tools, etc.)

The 3rd Annual Washington Gardener Photo Contest entry period runs from January 1-21, 2009.

The winners are announced at the Washington Gardener Seed Exchange on January 31, 2009 and then are published in the March/April 09 issue of Washington Gardener Magazine and are displayed at a local art show, Photo-Synthesis, this spring.

For a complete list of the 2009 contest rules, download the PDF linked at www.washingtongardener.com

Or send an email request for more information to WGardenermag@aol.com.

I hope you all had great holidays and a good start to 2009!

It's time to make travel arrangements for the Laurin Rinder workshop for May. We need to collect money from everyone quickly to make sure we have enough interest for two workshops, it appears we do!

If there are two workshops, the dates will be Friday May 15 and Saturday May 16th. People can choose which day, but if one fills up first, priority in choice goes to the people who signed up first.

We'd like to accommodate as many people as possible so please indicate date preference with your payment, and if either day works for you, please indicate that as well.

The cost will be $100 per person, non-refundable unless another person signs up beyond the initial 20 to fill a vacated slot.

The workshop will be an all day affair and intensive but fun and very informative!

I'd like to collect money from everyone on this list by January 14th (the night of our next meeting) or open up the remaining unpaid slots on a first come, first served basis at the end of the meeting.

Fees can be sent to the club's address at the Deleplaine or brought to the meeting January 14th. The mailing address is -

Frederick Camera Clique
Deleplaine Visual Arts
Education Center
40 South Carroll Street
Frederick, Maryland 21701

Please mail checks only, not cash.

To recap: The workshops will be held in a studio with the emphasis on studio lighting and working with models, and there will be a segment on post production toward the end of the day.

We will have 2-4 models (probably in a couple shifts) and we should have a make up artist on site as well. Light breakfast and lunch will be provided.

* Attendees should have DSLR or SLR cameras and be comfortable using their cameras' in manual mode.

The first 20 people's spots are guaranteed provided we have enough interest to hold two workshops and payments are collected on or before our January 14th meeting. As space allows, alternates can sign up on a first come, first served basis. (The list of names has been gathered and can be viewed in the email sent out to members on January 4th.)

Thank you!

Biggs Shot 2009, at the Biggs Museum of American art in Dover!

The Biggs Museum is pleased to announce, Biggs Shot 2009, the second juried photography competition and exhibition featuring the work of new and emerging photographers, working and/or living in the Mid-Atlantic region.

The inaugural Biggs Shot competition in 2005 attracted over 130 applicants within the region.

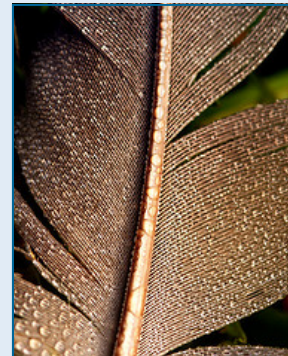

Sally Packard and Dinah Reath, owner of the Packard Reath Gallery, Ryan Grover, Biggs Museum Curator, and Catherine Ware, Curator of Photographs from the Philadelphia Museum of Art selected 40 photographs, which were exhibited at the Biggs Museum November 2005 through February 2006.

The selected photographs from the Biggs Shot 2009 competition will be showcased in the Biggs Shot 2009 Exhibition, offering visitors a wide range of local photographers' work and their perspectives of the Mid-Atlantic region.

The Biggs Museum plans to display double the amount of photographers in the Biggs Shot 2009 exhibition.

For more information and application forms, please visit their website <http://www.biggsmuseum.org/programs/biggsshot2009/biggsshot2009.html>

CALL FOR ARTIST

The Art of Science/The Science of Art

The Mary Condon Hodgson Art Gallery at Frederick Community College would like to invite art professionals and emerging artists to submit work of all media for a juried exhibition, The Art of Science/The Science of Art.

Following the preliminary selection, artists will be interviewed by scientists from the National Institutes of Health, and then paired with a scientist to begin work on a collaborative art project. This collaborative project may take up to one year to complete.

Submission Guidelines:

- Artists living in the Mid-Atlantic region
- Resume
- 10 digital images preferred of artist's work (CD/DVD and Slides accepted)

- A Written Narrative: Please describe your interest in the theme of the exhibition, including your views on what art and science have in common, and how artists and scientists could collaborate in creating a work of art.

- Submit Application to: Frederick Community College, attn: Wendell Poindexter, Art Center Director, 7932 Opossumtown Pike, Frederick, MD 21702 (please include a SASE) or wpindexter@frederick.edu
